

A high-contrast, close-up photograph of a horse's eye. The eye is dark and glossy, surrounded by the intricate, fibrous texture of the horse's skin and eyelids. The lighting creates bright highlights on the eye's surface and the surrounding fur, giving it a sense of depth and texture.

Photofinish

punctum

a cura di Marco Delogu e Massimo Reale